

U.S. News' list of the 100 Best Jobs of 2016

02/2016  Other resources

Good jobs are those that pay well, challenge us, are a good match for our talents and skills, aren't too stressful, offer room to advance and provide a satisfying work-life balance. Even though there is no one best job that suits each of us, U.S. News' list of the 100 Best Jobs of 2016 are ranked according to their ability to offer this mix of qualities. Also, the best careers are ones that are hiring. Physician, software developer, nurse practitioner, computer systems analyst and orthodontist are among the top-ranked occupations on U.S. News' list of the 100 Best Jobs of 2016. Read more about how we rank the best jobs, and check out our complete list.

Enter your email address

© CEDEFOP 2019

POWERED BY:

